DESCRIPTION:

In a refined palace we rent a splendid exhibition space, currently used as a contemporary art gallery. In the heart of Brera quartier, short walking time from the subway line MM3 Turati or MM2 Moscova.

Recently restored with prestigious materials, the space is composed by a 157 square meters mezzanine floor and a 117 square meters basement floor, for a total of 274 square meters.

The first floor consists of a large room, an office, 3 side local and a bathroom, while the basement floor consists of a large room.

Central heating and air conditioning system equipped. The lighting system consists of 18 halogen directional headlights and LED lights on the entire perimeter of the room, for a maximum performance during any kind of goods exposure. Wi-fi is included.

The floor is made by a PVC cement colour, which gives the local extreme sobriety and creates an elegant contrast with the the windows and doors antique finishes.

Public transportation: subway line MM3 Turati in addition to the bus line 94.

The residential and commercial area offers basic shops, pharmacies and schools, as well as art , design and fashion galleries, restaurants and bars. The central location makes the space particularly adapted for any business.
