DESCRIPTION:

The Gallery is located in a historical 18th century building, Palazzo Rusconi Clerici, facing the battlements and one of the beautiful towers of the Castello Sforzesco. It is located on the ground floor, with a private and easily accessible entrance.

The exhibition rooms lays around a small dehor set up with plants and flowers onto which the large windows overlook.

The core of the Gallery is a large room with an arch in the middle that creates a suggestive perspective from the entrance.

The walls are set up with a system of tracks perfectly integrated with the environment that can be used to hang art works.

The space is suitable for hosting exhibitions, events, fashion shows, photo shoots, conferences, meetings, cocktails.
